1. ____ My responsibility to register as a sex offender in California is a lifetime requirement, unless imposed solely as a probation condition. (PC § 290)
2. ____ I must register in person, if I have never registered, within five (5) working days of: 1) coming into California, or 2) release from incarceration, placement, commitment, or release on probation, with the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over my place(s) of residence or where I am physically present as a transient. (PC § 290)
3. ____ I must re-register in person, if I have previously registered, within five (5) working days, after release from incarceration, placement, or commitment that lasted 30 or more days, or within five (5) working days after release on probation. I do not have to re-register after release if I was incarcerated for less than 30 days, and I return to the last registered address, and the update of registration that is required to occur within five (5) working days before or after my birthday did not fall within that incarceration period. (PC § 290.015)
4. ____ I must annually update my registration information in person, within five (5) working days before or after my birthday, at the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over my residence address or where I am currently present as a transient. Annual updates begin with my first birthday following registration or change of address. (PC § 290.012)
5. ____ Upon coming into, or when changing my residence address within a city and/or county in which I am residing, I must register or re-register in person, within five (5) working days, with the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over my residence. (PC § 290, 290.013) DEFINITION: "Residence" means one or more addresses at which a person regularly resides, regardless of the number of days or nights spent there, such as a shelter or structure that can be located by a street address, including, but not limited to, houses, apartment buildings, motels, hotels, homeless shelters, and recreational and other vehicles.
6. ____ If I change my registered address to a new address, either within the same jurisdiction or anywhere inside or outside of the state, I must inform the last registering agency or agencies in person within five (5) working days before or after I leave. If I do not know my new residence address or transient location I must later notify, by registered or certified mail, the last registering agency or agencies of the new address or transient location with five (5) working days of moving to the new address or location. (PC § 290.013)
7. ____ If I am registered at a residence address and become transient or if I am registered as a transient and move to a residence, I have five (5) working days within which to register in person, with the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the new address or to register as a transient. (PC § 290.011)
8. ____ If I have no residence address, I must register in person in the jurisdiction where I am physically present as a transient within five (5) working days of becoming transient. Thereafter, I must update my registration information in person no less than once every 30 days with the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place where I am physically present as a transient on the day I re-register. I do not need to report changes of transient location within the 30-day period unless I move out of state. I must also comply with the annual requirement to update my registration. (PC § 290.011)
9. ____ If I am registered as a transient and I am moving out of state, I must inform the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place where I was physically present as a transient, in person, within five (5) working days before or after I leave. I must also inform the law enforcement agency of my planned destination, residence, or transient location out of state, if known, and any plans to return to California. (PC § 290.013)
10. ____ If I move outside of California, I am required by federal law to register in the new state within three (3) working days.
